SB9015T

True-flat All-in-One POS Terminal

SB9015T delivers the perfect blend of quality, performance and durability that you would expect from a best-in-class point-of-sale hardware. The economical price point with an industrial computer core and true-flat bezel free touch screen makes the SB9015T a perfect choice when an All-in-One POS solution is needed. Just one thumb screw located at the back panel of the monitor allows easy access to the computer core for service and maintenance.
