NiceLabel DESIGNER EXPRESS

The most affordable way to print labels from a database

The Full Spectrum of Labeling Software

NiceLabel

Basic labeling for small business

Design basic barcode labels in minutes and use Microsoft Excel as a simple database.

Easy label designer

Benefits

Easily create bar code labels

Designer Express wizards help you quickly and easily design labels. You can start printing finished labels in minutes.

Use Excel as a database

You're already familiar with MS Excel, why not use it to improve your labeling? Rather than create 10 identical labels, design 1 and use 10 rows of spreadsheet data.

Print to any type of printer

Designer Express delivers maximum performance and control of label printers when used with NiceDrivers. You can also use any laser or inkjet printer.

Solves basic labeling needs

Designer Express includes all common 1D, 2D, and composite bar codes. Variable text and bar code fields support database, prompts, counters and date/time stamps.
